

ONGOING EVENTS

"Music, Movement, and Sound"

Currently on display (Tue-Sat), 11am-4pm, Clark County Historical Museum (1511 Main St, Vancouver, Wash.). View "Music, Movement, and Sound: An Exploration of Clark County's Musical Roots," a family-friendly exhibit featuring interpretative panels, historical objects, interactive stations, and more to recall the history of music and dance in Clark County and southwest Washington. For info, call (360) 993-5679 or visit <www.cchmuseum.org>.

No Refunds

Through Feb 28 (daily), 11am-7pm, Floating World Comics (400 NW Couch St, Portland). View a group exhibit featuring works by contributors to No Refunds, the newest anthology from Unversed Comics. The display includes works by Jonathan Hill, Sarah Hickey, Grayson Bear, Skylar Kardon, Tandy Kunkle, Maria Frantz, and Krissy Little. For info, call (503) 241-0227 or visit <www.floatingworldcomics.com>.

"Post-Border Line"

Through Mar 3 (Tue-Sun), noon-5pm, Blue Sky Gallery (122 NW Eighth Ave, Portland). View "Post-Border Line," a display by South Korean photographer Jinhyun Cha. The exhibit, which features black-and-white images taken within the DMZ, is a visual contemplation of the 160-mile border between North and South Korea and the ideologies that overlap within it. For info, call (503) 225-0210 or visit <www.blueskygallery.org>.

"Noble Splendor"

Through Mar 3, 10am-5pm (Wed & Fri-Sun), 10am-9pm (Thu), Seattle Art Museum (1300 First Ave, Seattle). View "Noble Splendor: Art of Japanese Aristocrats," an exhibit of paintings that illustrate activities of Japanese aristocrats, ceramics commissioned by feudal lords for personal use or as gifts, and masterfully produced metalwork crafted with lavish materials and exquisite decorations. As the primary patrons of the arts in premodern Japan, aristocrats — both the imperial court nobility and the military elite — significantly shaped their country's art history. For info, call (206) 654-3100 or visit <www.seattleartmuseum.org>.

"Wham! Bam! Pow!"

Through Apr 14 (Tue-Sun), 10am-5pm, Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience (719 S King St, Seattle). View "Wham! Bam! Pow! Cartoons, Turbans & Confronting Hate," an exhibit of illustrations by Vishavjit Singh, whose cartoons emerged from a tragedy: the 9/11 attacks. A Sikh American with a turban and beard, Vishavjit was a target of fear, anxiety, and ignorance after the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Verbal insults and threats fluctuated depending on news coverage, and concerned for his personal safety, he turned to humor and comics — one of his childhood loves — to create Sikhtoons. His simple imagery often has an edge that pierces stereotypes, prompts self-reflection, and promotes action while adding a missing perspective to the comic-book genre. For info, call (206) 623-5124 or visit <www.wingluke.org>.

"BAM! Glasstastic"

Through Apr 14 (Wed-Sun), 11am-5pm, Bellevue Arts Museum (510 Bellevue Way NE, Bellevue, Wash.). View pieces featured as part of the "BAM Biennial," a signature exhibit of the Bellevue Arts Museum (BAM). Artwork created by more than four dozen artists, including Fumi Amano, Keiko Hara, Etsuko Ichikawa, and others, are highlighted in "BAM! Glasstastic." For info, call (425) 519-0770 or visit <www.bellevuearts.org>.

Jane Wong

Through Sep 1, 11am-5pm (Tue-Wed & Fri-Sun), 11am-7pm (Thu), Frye Art Museum (704 Terry Ave, Seattle). View "After Preparing the Altar, the Ghosts Feast Feverishly," an exhibit by Jane Wong featuring her poems and essays that unearth silenced histories, immigrant narratives, and intergenerational trauma. The Seattle-based writer's recent projects consider the social, historical, and political contexts that "haunt" the work of contemporary Asian-American poets. For info, call (206) 622-9250 or visit <www.fryemuseum.org>.

Come From Away

Feb 26-Mar 3, 7:30pm (Tue-Sat), 2pm (Sat), 1pm & 6:30pm (Sun), Keller Auditorium (222 SW Clay St, Portland). Watch Come From Away, a performance held as part of the Broadway in Portland series. The musical is based on the true story of when the isolated community of Gander, Newfoundland, played host to the world. What started as an average day in a small town turned into an international sleepover when 38 planes, carrying thousands of people from across the globe, were diverted to Gander's air strip on September 11, 2001. Undaunted by culture clashes and language barriers, the people of Gander cheered the stranded travellers with music, an open bar, and the recognition that we're all part of a global family. For info, or to buy tickets, call (503) 248-4335, or visit <www.portland5.com> or <www.broadwayinportland.com>. To learn more, visit <www.comefromaway.com>.

Cambodian Rock Band

Mar 6-Oct 27, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Thomas Theatre (15 S Pioneer St, Ashland, Ore.). Watch Cambodian Rock Band, a musical journey 30 years in the making. The epic play/rock concert thrusts viewers into the life of a young woman trying to piece together her family history 30 years after her father fled Cambodia. Featuring actor/musicians who perform a mix of contemporary Dengue Fever hits and classic Cambodian oldies live, playwright Lauren Yee brings to life the Cambodian rock scene of the '60s and '70s, a movement cut short by the Khmer Rouge's brutal attempt to erase the music (and musicians) once and for all. The story tells about survivors, the resilient bond of family, and the enduring power of music. For info, showtimes, or to buy tickets, call (541) 482-2111 or visit <www.osfashland.org>.

Ali Wong

Mar 9-10, 7pm (Sat-Sun), 9:30pm (Sat), Keller Auditorium (222 SW Clay St, Portland). Attend a performance of stand-up comedy by Asian-American comedian, writer, and actress Ali Wong. When Wong released her Netflix special, "Baby Cobra," in 2016, she became the first comedian to record a stand-up special while seven months pregnant. Two years later, she released another Netflix special, "Hard Knock Wife," pregnant again, this time with her second child. "The Milk & Money Tour," which takes her across the U.S., kicks off this month and ends May 4, 2019. For info, or to buy tickets, call (503) 248-4335 or visit <www.portland5.com>. To learn more, visit <www.aliwong.com>.
